A Hindrance to Healing - Part One

Love Never Fails

Love is not a feeling, but an intentional action that is made daily. As Christians, we should choose to live a life that pleases God. Since we know that it is our faith, which requires our love, that causes God to be pleased with us, then we should do everything in our power to love one another as the Word of God commands us. When we choose to walk in love with others our heart motives will align with God's Word ultimately bringing us to a place in Christ where we are not easily offended, and consequently we are empowered to ignore a suffered wrong.

"It is not conceited (arrogant and inflated with pride); it is not rude (unmannerly) and does not act unbecomingly. Love (God's love in us) does not insist on its own rights or its own way, for it is not self-seeking; it is not touchy or fretful or resentful; it takes no account of the evil done to it [it pays no attention to a suffered wrong]." – 1 Corinthians 13:5 (AMPC)

"Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?" – Matthew 5:43-47
