From Start to Finish

Make a choice that you will not listen to the lies of the devil. Resist, oppose, and withstand the devil. Speak truth and choose to think on the good report. Reflect on your stories of healing that Jesus has already exhibited in you. Count up your victories and believe that the power of God is changing your current situation too!

You have to believe what you said at the start and remain steadfast especially when things have shifted in the wrong direction. The power you believed Jesus had to change things at the beginning, must be present in the middle and all the way to the finish. At no point should you doubt that Jesus is moving things in your life. Stay focused on your coming victory.

Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. James 4:7

Questions for You:

1. Is your belief in Jesus' ability to change your situation consistent from the beginning to the end?

2. What do you have to do to get the devil to flee?
