A Hindrance to Healing - Part One

Christ, The Head

If Jesus is truly Lord over our lives, there are things that should not be said or done in His presence. Knowing that Christ is the Head of His Body, we should not do anything that is contrary to what the Head instructs us to do. Because of our love, and reverence for God and His Son, we should be willing to love and to forgive one another as Christ loved and forgave us. Let us be reminded that we have been purchased by the blood of Jesus therefore, we should glorify God in and through our lives.

“For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church.” – Colossians 1:16-18

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” – John 3:16

“For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.” – 1 Corinthians 6:20

Questions for You:

1. What does the commandment to love one another mean to you?
